

Maria Sarantopoulou is the Chief Legal Advisor at Eurofast Athens since 2015. She is a Lawyer, Member of the Athens Bar Association and appointed as Attorney at Law at the Supreme Court of Greece. She has significant experience in working for corporations as an in-house lawyer and external legal consultant for over 23 years.

Her practice areas mainly focus on corporate and commercial law, real estate and Immigration through investment, mergers and acquisitions, capital markets, national and international tax law, financing, competition law, telecoms, media, contract negotiations, information technology and intellectual property rights, energy, trademark and patent law. She used to work for many years for a big Telecom-TV company as internal legal advisor and for many other big companies engaged in the above sectors as external consultant and as member of acknowledged law firms.

Her team is responsible for opening of any kind of companies and supporting them with all the necessary corporate services as well as opening of bank accounts. Care for the KYC forms of their clients, provide AML Services and ensure UBO registrations. Consult the clients on labour law issues, draft and negotiate any kind of contracts, deal with mergers, acquisitions, share transfers, conversions of corporate legal forms, legal due diligence of companies, apply national, EU and international trademark registrations.

Moreover, our team in Greece specializes in real estate transactions, conduct legal due diligences of property titles and ensure for foreign clients Permanent Residence Permits through investments in Greece. Maria also holds a postgraduate Diploma in European Competition Law from King's College of London and is fluent in Greek, English and German. Maria has written and published several articles on local and international level.